

Message FIVE of Twelve

I AM... Resurrection! I AM... Light!

Through Wisdom Teacher Sri Ram Kaa & Master Lady Kira Raa
February 26, 2005, TOSA Center for Enlightened Living, Tijeras, New Mexico, USA

Archangel Zadkiel speaks:

Yes! I AM...here! Yes! Good afternoon, and how are you today? You are good? Yes!

The Time Of Abundant Chaos

We welcome you here during the time of great abundant chaos! Yes! It is a time of great abundant chaos. And! This is important for you to know, for you have entered into the time of the resurrection of the chaotic indirectness.

It is important for you to be able to manifest within yourself the opportunity to leave the indirectness and move into the wholeness of the truth of your being-ness.

The hiding, the sleeping, the being without full connection is beyond your consciousness. And, your consciousness is now ready to enter into full resurrection.

Resurrection

What is resurrection? Many, in what you call this country, hear this word resurrection and they immediately go to one idea of resurrection, do they not? Yes! They do! This is good for you to be aware of, and it is good for you to release. The truth of resurrection, is the energy of the understanding of coming home.

Resurrection is indeed joy, is it not?

Resurrection is the opportunity to be able to come home into your own truth of spaciousness, and to say, “Yes! I AM resurrected back into my own wholeness. I AM resurrected into my knowingness, and in my full wholeness, in my full knowingness, there cannot be chaos.”

Chaos does not exist!

Do you not know this language – I am resurrection and light? Have you heard this? It is important for you to take this moment now and declare:

“I AM Resurrection! I AM Light!”

This is the gift of the power of the knowing-ness that you call into your own heart. For each is resurrection! Each is light!

When you give yourself the gift of calling this into you, when you declare from the wholeness, from the spaciousness of pure light energy, when you open up your heart, when you expand into the Ascended Root Chakra, you say, “Yes! I shall move into the root and I shall open up into the power of true resurrection.”

It is the time of resurrection!

Resurrection and Death

Many say, “If it is the time of resurrection, what happened to the death? Is there not death with resurrection, what is this about?”

There must be both! There must be both death and resurrection. In many ways, from the 3rd dimensional chaotic way of thinking of a system of believing in chaotic energy, then yes, death would be simultaneous with resurrection. Yet, this too is a fallacy!

Declare, “I AM Resurrection!”, and you are able to supersede what you call death.

If you release the belief of what death is, if you release the belief of what you are told death should be, looks like, would look like, be for you . . . if you release this and move into the resurrected heart, then your energy immediately flies like the eagle, does it not?

Yes! You...ARE...most free. You are most free! As you declare this month, "I AM Resurrection!" This is the month of resurrection. I AM Resurrection! You must take a full lunar cycle of declaring "I AM Resurrection" to call in the resurrection energy.

It does not matter if you hear this now, it does not matter if you hear this a year from now. What matters is you take a full lunar cycle of declaring "I AM Resurrection". As many will declare, "I AM Death", and you must know this too. For the two are not always serendipitously meant to be together.

It is not just about the death into resurrection; it is about the choice!

Make your choice!

I AM Resurrection or I AM Death!

Either way you shall be able to find a unified energy within. Either way it does not matter, just choose!

You are in, dearest children, the time of the unwinding spiral. All is opening up. All! And as ALL opens, much becomes available to ALL in many different forms. What do you declare? "I AM Resurrection!" Yes, OK, you can say that! Let us hear, "I AM Resurrection". Very well done! Feel the power of that energy.

Resurrection Energy Exercise

Let us do this with a little more power. Put your hands to heart, both hands. Before you do this, take in a deep breath to the heart, and as you take in a deep breath to the heart, allow the exhale to release all that feels like death! YES!

And as you breathe in deep and as you exhale, all that feels like death and all of the energy of what feels like death – the emotional ties, the burdens, the chaos, the belief structures, the egoic – as you release and breathe all of that, then you are ready, then you are prepared.

Make your hands feel as if the wings of the eagle over your heart. Yes. Breathe in deep and declare, “I AM RESURRECTION!” Yes!

Call in the energy of the flight. Know the truth of your power. Be prepared, dearest children, for the great flight begins now. Yes!

Open this heart chakra. Know the truth! For when the root, (the heart), is empowered with the Ascended Energy, it can only go one place. Where is that? Up!

As we bring in the ascended energy, yes, we go up. Yes! We free. We allow. We release. We give the gift of true life. Not only to those of us who are sitting here; to ALL!

Each time you declare, “I AM Resurrection!” your energy expands ten-fold. Imagine doing this a lot during every day for 30 days – how many-fold would that be?

It is most important for you to allow the gift of “I AM Resurrection!” for the next complete lunar cycle. Declare this every day, many times during the day.

Resurrection & The Exploded Crown Chakra

Allow your hands to gently relax. Yes. And as you do this, we offer you the great energy of upliftment. Why do we use this eagle analogy today? Some are saying, “What’s this about?” It is about many things, dear ones. It is about many things.

It is about the freedom that you carry within. It is about the true resurrection. It is about the honoring of all cycles having come full circle and the beginning of the next wave of higher illumination. We use this word “higher” only for perspective.

There is no “higher”; there is no “lower”.
There is the gratitude of reaching into the ascended energy state.

As you allow your “self” the gift of BE-ing resurrection – what does that mean? What does it mean to “BE resurrection”?

It is not something outside of you. It is not a state of mind. It is not a concept, and it is certainly not something to be preached. It is indeed the energy of the gift of lifting, of the gift of knowing, of the gift of BE-ing.

Many of you know about the exploded crown chakra. Take your hands to the ears, and as you take your hands to the ears focus on the exploded crown chakra. Breathe and allow your “self” to reach into the greater ascended state.

Breathe in deeply, let your head go back, and let your hands go up, offering your “self” connectivity, energy, knowingness, love, remembrance, BE-ing. Yes!

We have called in a portal of crystalline energy that washes over ALL. As you do this exercise, allow that portal to come into your crown, to connect you up!

The fifth dimension is but a state of being. It must also be a state of knowing. What do you do when you say, “I AM Resurrection” ?

What happens to the egoic remnant? What happens to the personality, as you call it? Does it question? Does it want to know more? Or, is it able to say, YES! “I AM Resurrection! I AM Light!”

This is the gift you must give your “self” each time. For as you are in the exploded crown, as you are in the energies of fifth dimensional experience, there are many more energies that are bombarding around you.

As you stay anchored in the ascended energy, and as you expand more with the root chakra of the heart, as you give your “self” the gift of moving into the vibrational field of oneness, unity, and resurrection; you gift your “self” with the opportunity to free many others.

The Lemurian Revolution

The planet that you are on, this sphere of density, is becoming more and more unstable. You must understand dearest children, that during the Lemurian Revolution this was exactly what was set to be at this time in your third culminating experience as beings of density. Let us go back and give you more understanding of this, for many questions we see.

At the end times of Leumeria there was a great split. There was a split among those who felt that the experiment of being in density was no longer viable. That this state of being was not of the highest vibrational frequency and that indeed we should return back into Source – then, now – without traveling, without more expansion.

This group of Leumerians became very powerful as did the group of Leumerians that were committed to going on with expansion, for expansion is the gift that “you” give light.

Light can only expand!

The greatest gift to bring back to oneness is the gift of expansion, the gift of love, the gift of resurrection, the gift of the joyous homecoming.

And at the end of the Lemurian Revolution there was much energy that was split. Within this split energy, over many eons of experience, it has become to be what you consider to be the dark and the light in many different ways.

So, at the end of this time now, there are Lemurian energies that wish to prohibit the Ascensionary experience of moving into I AM Resurrection.

There is a very simple way on this globe of density to prevent others from being able to recognize their own I AM Resurrection, I AM Ascension, I AM Light.

The way to do this is to work within a belief structure that perceives safety. Therefore, when you work within a belief system that has a safety mechanism tied to it – or what many would call to be organized belief systems of that which is and that which is not – these systems will become much more powerful in their mis-belief of what is the accurate truth of the I AM presence within each of you.

Now we do not wish to confuse; we do wish to offer clarity. It is important for you to take in that you are at the time now where there are many energies that wish to convolute the truth of your being-ness. There are many energies that wish you to stay in the traditional chakra system, for it serves well for density! It serves well for chaos!

If you are experiencing chaos, where do you normally feel it? In the lower chakras of the traditional earthbound system! And if the Earth is warbling, and you are in this Earth-attached system, will you not warble too? Yes!

This is why the decision must be made!
Are you choosing death or are you choosing resurrection?

Within the choice of death, we wish to remove the connotation of the word death, for many of your friends, many of those you know have already made their choice. They have chosen what many will call death through a series of chaotic experiences in a 3rd dimensional realm that is going into deeper chaos.

Dearest children it is the time of deeper chaos.

This is not meant to frighten; this is meant to illuminate. This is meant to offer you the gift of energy appropriation. Big word.

Energy appropriation is meant to give you the choice of where your energy best serves in the energy of all light. Where do you choose to serve? Where do you choose to be? Is the decision made from the self? Is the decision made from the greater community of Light? Where do you serve? Where is your choice? Where do you wish to be?

The Eagle Takes Flight and The Void

I AM Resurrection serves All.
Within each declaration you serve All!

As you move forward into this exploded crown energy, you lift beyond the fifth dimensional experience.

It is necessary for many to lift through the fifth dimensional experience to be able to get above what would be called the radar of the fifth dimension, for even in the fifth dimension there are many energies that still exist that have similar patterns to that which you have experienced here in the third dimension.

This is why it is such a simple shift!

It is a very simple shift, dear children; it is not a hard shift. There are so many confusing energies around this fifth dimensional shift. Oh yes! “How will we go? What do we do? What will happen?”

It is important to understand that each governs the gift of their own upliftment. Each governs their own ability to fly and soar.
Each governs their gift of true connectivity.
You each have within you the gift of the Ascended Heart, which is indeed the Eagle.

We come back to the discussion of the eagle for you. Is it not perfect that you are in the land of what is known as “the Eagle”, activating an eagle? Give yourself this gift! Fly as the eagle flies, knowing that often the eagle flies alone. And this too is a gift. It is a great gift.

Offer up that which comes to your heart.

Honor that which flows freely from joy.

Be in the gratitude of the truth that you are.

This is what shall help you through the fifth dimension and into the seventh.

There is a time between the fifth and seventh dimension when you can indeed experience that which feels like the void. Is that such a bad thing?

The void is in and of itself an opportunity to face and be in the oneness, in the stillness within your own heart, within your own understanding.

When you walk into the void know that you do not walk in alone. Each will walk into the void in their own time. Each must walk into the void.

As you walk into the void, you understand the joyous upliftment of walking in, as you walk through. Oftentimes one can bring themselves into a dimensionary experience, moving into the 5th dimension, moving into the understanding, moving into the truth of knowingness.

And then, one continues walking into the void, and one says, “Oh my goodness, what have I done?”, and chooses to come all the way back to the 3rd dimension. This is OK!

Each must walk into the void and see the truth of their own heart.

Where is the truth of your own heart?

Is it ascended?

Is it the root?

Or is it indeed a center of density for you in the middle of a body?

Only walking into the void of each understanding will give you this. So we gift you with the wings of the eagle. We gift you with the heart of bravery, and the courage to understand your truth! To walk into your void, to trust and know that as you are asked to trust and move forward, as you are walking into your own void, you call in the greater connectivity of knowing I AM Resurrection! I AM Light!

The Power of the Declaration

It is easy to walk around the planet and chat, chat, chat! Is it not? You are all very chatty! Many words! Words do nothing! Words do nothing!

The actions of the truth of your heart are what will catapult you into the truth of knowingness.

This is what the void will give you. And the void is upon you. It is your choice to walk in. Knowing that you cannot fail no matter what you are experiencing; no matter what your choice, and no matter what you decide.

You are already in the state of ascended knowingness. You are already home. You are already calling in the joyous gratitude of remembrance and knowing for many! For yourself, for the world, and for many worlds. Do not think so small as this is the only world. There are many. And they are all converging! We are at the time of great convergence, as we bless you and give you gifts of knowingness.

It is important for you to say, “Oh my goodness, so serious today!” Yes! We are serious because it is the time of seriousness. We are all light-hearted, dear children. Know that we bring you joyous, lightheartedness upliftment of the truth.

Joyously walk into the void knowing that you are armed with everything you need. You are totally protected.

Declare this over the next 30 days, this lunar cycle:

I AM! I AM! I AM Resurrection!

Know the truth. Know the being-ness. And then you can color your eggs, and dance around. Yes! Whichever you decide! It is important!

Take your time. Be present. Even when everything around you seems to be exploding, even when every decision you make you are questioning, bring your hand to your heart, breathe deeply and remember the declaration: I AM Resurrection! I AM!

Bring your hand to heart. We offer each of you the gift. As you breathe...KNOW...BE! Call in the truth! Bring the wings of the eagle to your heart. Let it suspend the ascended chakra system for you. Let it open and clear all that feels like pain, all that feels like memory, all that feels like that which has stopped you from the propulsion forward.

Know the truth of the winged heart. Know that the winged heart is your birthright. It is the truth of who you are; it is the being-ness. It is your remembrance.

I AM Resurrection! I AM Light!
I AM Resurrection! I AM Light!
I AM Resurrection! I AM Light!

Breathing deeper, ever clearer, ever more certain, ever more focused, ever more alive, ever more connected, ever more being. I AM!

Breathing, bring your hands up, and as you bring your hands up, allow yourself to look up knowing the gift that is being poured upon you now, knowing that as you receive all the gifts of the glorious knowing that you are indeed the one.

You are the manifest glory of the greatest power of the divine.
Do not ever forget that!

Know that your purpose here has already been declared above many heavens. Call in your destiny. Know the truth of who you are. Know you are prepared to walk into the void with courage, honor and power. Know you are loved.

Now bring your hands back and hug yourself! You deserve it! Yes! Yes! Know how loved you are! Know how cherished you are. Know truly – Truth! Truth! Truth!

You are of the divine oneness. You cannot experience illness, you cannot experience chaos, and you cannot experience that which feels like disharmony.

Only this vessel that has chosen this experience can do that. You cannot, and You are now ready. Yes! Great power! Great power! Great power!

This is your month of declaration; use it wisely. For in this month you anchor the Ascended Heart. You have already done a good job in recognizing the heart, you have gone into your truth chakra and said, “Yes, this is no longer a throat but a beacon of truth! It is a vessel of truth!”

And oftentimes a vessel of truth speaks better without words, does it not? Yes!

Let your energy be the guide.
Let your gift be your heart.
Anchor the winged heart, carry in the eagle, and know the truth of who you are!
Walk into the void with great courage and joy!
Yes!

You are finally there. It is a good gift. Know that we love you! Know that you are beyond ready as you have been preparing a long time.

This is not just a happening. This is a culminating event.

You have chosen to be here.

All of your ancestors are here. They all celebrate with you. There is much dancing here. Oh, yes! There is much dancing, much singing, and many languages. Embrace all these languages, embrace the truth.

*A tribe of many nations is here upon you. Be the tribe.
Know the truth. Unify your light. Understand the gift. Yes!*

You have questions? We take questions. Yes!

Questions from the Community

Q: I have a question that concerns bringing maybe an – I call it like an ancient idea about the eagle and condor – it’s a legend; the eagle in the north and the condor from the south. And I’m wondering how will that development open into this new energy. Is there value in some of these old myths, legends?

A: Is that your question?

Q: It is.

Yes! We honor you for asking this question for many, many, carry this - what you call “myth” - with them. All myth, dear one, comes from the ancient truth.

Over eons of recognition the myth creates itself, and then the myth propagates itself until we come to a time when we must recognize the truth within each myth!

We become grateful that the myth is there to open up the key to the remembrance. It is a powerful gift when we are given the opportunity to unlock the truth of the myth. You are in the time of the unlocking. You are in the time of the connecting. You are in the time of the Resurrection of why the myth became, of why the truth has always been! Yes, the two shall be one. YES!

You are in the time of this revelation. We are at the time of many revelations. During this you call year, the stage will be set, (we may use this word for you), for many of these connections to come to be and the portals and stairwells shall open.

And greater truth shall be made aware.

All are reconnecting now to be able to open, hold, and get the energy back in realignment so that the portals and stairwells may be made available.

It is important for you, dear one, to keep walking forward. Keep reaching, keep doing. What you seek is already coming in for you.

Q: Last month when Uriel came through I have had feelings for about 4 weeks before then about Leumeria and I asked a question about it feeling like there were beings, friends of mine from that time, coming. This last month – and what he told me was – to heal my relationship with Atlantis. So, this whole month what’s been happening is I’ve been feeling a lot more of the I AM energy.

I’ve been reading a lot more about Leumeria. I’ve been doing work on healing the separation that I felt. I’m feeling like there’s this strong thing I’m supposed to be doing around this – I’m not quite clear – you gave me some more information today, but what, I guess, is there something else you can give me out there to get it going. I’m not quite clear what it is?

A: You are walking into the footsteps now. Be careful where you walk and what you are unlocking. Be careful who calls to you and how you respond.

Learn your judicious response and prepare yourself to face your void shortly. There is within you a key of your Lemeurian lifetime that has catapulted you forward and is ready to be open now. In order for you to unlock this key, you must go within your own void and face again the “you” that is staring at you. It is your time. You have been prepared. Yes!

Q: Those in Leumeria that chose to go back into spirit rather than go travel, expand through density, have they stayed in spirit or have they come back into the density plane and changed their minds and then decided to travel on through density?

A: This is, as they say, the million-dollar question. Yes! This is its own teaching. This is the subject of books. As a matter of fact, this is book that is soon to be . . . Sri Ram Kaa & Kira Raa have been receiving this information for over a year.

It is important for you to understand that there were – words you know – revelations that were made at the time of Leumeria and revelations that were made at the time of Atlantis.

These revelations do not parallel the revelations that are so commonly referred to here in this form of density. These true revelations are back on the planet now because – yes, dear child – those of Leumeria that chose to go to spirit caused what was called the Lemeurian Revolution out of their own belief system that it was not of highest vibrational energy or of great service to one Light to be able to continue the density experience. And so, these energies have indeed been very busy.

They've manifested in many forms. More forms than we are able to sit with you today. However, as you look into your own heart, you will recognize that there have been many of these forms in many ways around all.

Within the reconnection there has been a romantization of what the Lemeurian experience was. Part of the romantization is to try to dispel the understanding and the recollection within the hearts of those who know of the Lemeurian Revolution and that which it had caused. Separation energy, the opportunity to interfere, the gift to go to a 3rd dimensional realm and be, as they say, put into an energy vortex where other energies can blend and offer misinterpretations to guide and direct through perceived understandings.

We do not wish to confuse, we wish simply to open. And so, we offer you this gift of opening. You, dear child, have witnessed the Revolution; this is why you ask.

Q: Right.

A: Within your own heart the Revolution stirs you and you remember much. Give yourself the patience to simply love yourself enough to understand that you chose to be here now and it will unfold in proper way.

Q: Thank you.

K: Yes! Yes!

Q: Can you tell us more about what going into this void is like? Do we leave our bodies; do we go into other realms? Can you tell us a little bit more about this?

A: Each will journey into the void in a different way. For each has their own reason for going into the void. And we use the word “reason” very hesitantly, for that is of an egoic understanding.

Who would want the reason? Who is asking? What is the reason about?

We offer to you the gift of knowing that the void will simply appear before you as if you are driving along a road and you see a tunnel. And you must make a decision at that point – do I turn around or do I go through? Knowing that this tunnel has an opening at the other end.

Each will journey in the way that calls to them. Each will be different and each will be profound. It is important to allow this to simply be, to reveal, to know. Do not force it.

We offer this to all of you. You cannot force that which is already revealed.
Give yourself the gift of knowing your truth.

Remember that doubt and fear are the only things that can interrupt your connection to the divine. Trust your truth. Trust your 5th dimensional experience as you are being asked to offer yourself the gift of going beyond. Know the truth of oneness and unity.

We are most blessed to be with you now and we offer each of you a blessing of deep connectivity. Know how loved you are! Know how supported you are! Each of you is in a glorious time of reconnection!

Much dancing! Much chanting! Much celebrating! Take your wings of reunification and fly! I AM . . . Resurrection! Very good, let's do that again. I AM Resurrection! Yes. Take this lunar cycle and know the truth.

Many blessings dear ones. Many blessings.

Post-trance messages while Kira Raa is still returning to body

Kira Raa: They keep showing me mountains. It's funny, it's like they're showing me the mountain over Flagstaff, (Arizona), if you've ever seen, what is that? I don't remember the name. (from group: San Francisco Peaks) Yes. They're showing me all these Kachina's dancing. And it's so beautiful; it is so beautiful!

They're all just chanting and dancing and loving you, and just saying, "Dance with us, dance with us, chant with us, be with us, Come up here and see the perspective. Know the truth of what is happening. Come up here and be with us!"

It feels like a chariot over here and it's got all these big horses in front of it, and its right here and they're huge! And they're all just over here and they're just standing there. And they're saying, "We will guide you through to the other side of the gate."

And there's Archangel Michael, right in the back there, and he's just standing there with his arms wide . . . I've never seen him like that . . .

he's just standing there like this with his arms wide open and his sword is on the floor. And he just has it in front of him, saying, "You are complete. You do not need to wield this sword; you simply need to know the power of it."

This whole area over here feels like its melted – I'm just seeing purple and white and blue and gold and all this light just pouring in. And as it's pouring in these horses are rearing up and Michael's just standing there like this, (arms wide).

And these mountains and these Kachina's are all in the center. It's just so beautiful! Thank you! Thank you! I keep hearing them singing. They keep saying, "Do not be afraid! Do not be afraid! Be uplifted! Be uplifted!"

Sri Ram Kaa: Last night I just lay in bed for a while and this phrase just kept floating through my consciousness over and over, "I am the Way and the Light. None shall come to the Father except through me."

I think I'm quoting that pretty close, and I found myself with the knowing that it is not the personality, it is the "I AM". I AM is the way. I AM is the Light.

I've particularly enjoyed the sharing of this discourse and the truth of those energies as they were articulated for us. It is the time of resurrection and to claim it.

Kira Raa: It feels like water is being washed over all of you. They're asking that you just take a minute and close your eyes. Put your hands on your heart and just let this water wash over you. Breathe in deep.

It feels like its raining golden sprinkles over all of you. They're showing me all of your exploded crown chakras with these golden beautiful sprinkles all around you and they've taken the ascended heart and they've put these wings on it. It's beautiful. I feel taller! (Much Laughter and joy!)
