The T-12 Speak:

Yes! Hello Beloved Ones of great Energy and Light of a world of great purity; and yet, a world of great momentum. We welcome thee, and, indeed, we are in a great energetic cocoon today.

You may say, Who is this? Who is thee? Who is it we are speaking with?

Beloved Ones, we hail to thee from the realms of what you call Ascended Mastery, Ascended Masters, and yet, Beloved Ones, there is a great and vibrant energy Here, (meaning this place, this moment).

You have met with us before. We offer to you the name T12, and we are here to share with you many revelations of this time of great luminosity.

The Divine Dance of Oneness

Beloved angels of the world of Gaia, in your world now, the Es-See-Nah<sup>1</sup> energy seeks to anchor itself into a new way of expression. For many of you, you cling still to books that have been written by those who interpret it, interpret it, interpret it, interpret it, and these books serve to offer you great illumination, but, Beloved Ones, remember, if we were to offer to you the symbology or the symbolism of your world, these books are but kindergarten compared to the education of thy soul that you already harness within yourself. Kindergarten, Beloved Ones. These books are designed only to remember the inspiration within thee.

How do we begin to share this with you today?

We begin at the beginning, as they say, for we have much to share, and we have a great journey ahead with you.

DIVINE ILLUMINATIONS: A SERIES OF TIMELESS ESS-SEE-NAH REVELATIONS

Before your planet, before this realm, before the form of the body that you are in right now came forward for thee, there was the Divine Dance of Oneness.

And, the Divine Dance of Oneness we refer to as a dance, because within it was the spark of the Indi-vid-u-will that has come forward into form on your planet now.

Beloved Ones! As you breathe you feel this energy within thee if you allow this breath to be full and complete, and if you give yourselves the gift of not holding that breath.

To make this simplistic and yet to make it expansive for thee, when the decision, and all of our words can only come from the vocabulary of your planet so we offer them to you with great choice, and yet, even these words are limiting.

Markers Along the Way

When the decision was made for you to say; Yes, I will again begin a journey of divine dispensation throughout the universal central core of Divine Light, and as I make this journey, and as I go and grow through this journey, I understand and recognize that there is a great gift in forgetfulness, for forgetfulness is an illusion in and of itself. And in this great gift of Divine Forgetfulness, on each incarnation that comes to a specific world of divine memory, through this incarnation you will offer and leave markers along the way.
Markers along the way.

This is why so many come forward in this incarnation and say, I remember; I know; This feels familiar; I understand. What is this momentum? What is this understanding?

And you may have a great understanding that spans many evolutions of your Divine Oneness expanding, thereby, when you are not clear, you become confused.

Take a breath again, Beloved Ones.

As you offer to yourselves this great Divine unraveling of what many call confusion, what you are finding is that if you were to take all of the books you call sacred, it does not matter what you have put on it as a label, if you were simply to stack them high, imagine you have them on your floor one after another after another after another after another, so high indeed that you might even have to climb on top of the stack, and you breathe in the stack, you would understand Oneness.

The Energy of Comparison

Many in your world now seek to engage the mind of Oneness without engaging the heart of Oneness.

To engage the mind of Oneness causes great comparison energy. In your world, comparison energy seeks to encourage separation.

Beloved Ones, when you compare, you destroy yourself.

When you compare, you say: I am not enough, or this must be put in front of me for me to feel I am enough.

Comparison will always limit and will bring into your energy field that which you are comparing, and so why compare at all?

Why compare height, weight, color, skin, eyes, experience, life experience, abundance?

Whatever it is you compare, when you compare, you bring forward a limitation to limitless experience.

The gift of comparison is that in the moment you choose to step out of it, you recognize the blessing of it. For each time you compare, for each time you bring to yourself comparison, you are illuminating from within your own soul a great recognition of freedom.

Comparison, Beloved Ones, began with the great sacred books, and we wish for you to hear that we are simply here to offer you a gift of great freedom at a time of great constriction, and only if your heart seeks to choose it.

For many, in this time of great constriction will choose greater constriction because it will feel more safe. They will hide and dive into the books, and they will quote from the books, and they will tell you that only they understand the books.

This is not true, unless you choose it to be, because it is your choice!

And in the great rise in your world over a time of what you call the next several years, there will be even more who will share with you they are the true soul interpreter of their own book and that you must listen to their interpretation, and that if you do not align with their interpretation, there will be great ramification.

Perhaps the ramification is a great freedom. Perhaps the great freedom is a choice you are ready to make in the experience of moving forward into a greater education than that of a kindergarten level.

Spiritual Graduation: True Freedom

Beloved Ones, you have been in kindergarten for a long time. And kindergarten is, indeed, fun. You are given cookies and milk and you are taken care of. And in kindergarten, you even take a nap; do you not? There is the sacred moment where you are encouraged to go back to sleep. How many of you are still in naptime, waiting for the smell of the fresh cookies and the milk to wake you up?

DIVINE ILLUMINATIONS: A SERIES OF TIMELESS ESS-SEE-NAH REVELATIONS

Beloved Ones, indeed, all are ready to awaken, and yet there are many who will seek to stay in kindergarten. Love them.

If you are a kindergarten teacher, how do you care for those that you care for? You offer them love and reassurance. You allow them to feel safe in their experience. You hand them the finger paints and celebrate that which they create without judgment or comparison to another.

And, as a kindergarten teacher, you do not try to teach algebra. This is an important discernment, Beloved Ones, for many in kindergarten now are saying, I must learn algebra, and yet they do not even understand what math is, much less algebra.

We offer this to you in this parable or simile, as they say, because it is imperative for you to recognize that every time you go to a text that is written to control and written to inspire, you make a decision on what you will receive from that text.

You are either receiving control energy, or you are receiving inspiration energy that expands your consciousness to the point where you say,

Aha, I see the greater expansion of this book.

I remember being part of it.

I understand why it is written, and in this moment I am free.

Many in your world now find that they must go to another to find their freedom, and indeed, if you are with another who is free, then, indeed, allow yourself the recognition that freedom will inspire freedom will inspire freedom.

And yet make no mistake, Beloved Ones, freedom is not of this planet so it cannot ever be granted to you. It can only be birthed through you. It can only be birthed through you.

If you are in kindergarten, then most definitely you are placed in a playground with fences and walls because you are not ready to run free. If you choose to go forward beyond kindergarten, then there does not need to be a wall because you understand the Divine presence of freedom. You understand right action, and what you call laws of society.

Karmic ramifications dissolve in the right action of true freedom.

Beloved Ones, hear our love for you. We come only as a means of inspiration to help you reawaken that, which in your own Divine soul, is seeking to reawaken now.

Your planet, in the linear time line that you exist in right now, is in a new cycle, and cycles are birthing other cycles. Yet to bring the energy of an old cycle into a new cycle can be chaotic and confusing; can it not?

SRI & KIRA

DIVINE ILLUMINATIONS: A SERIES OF TIMELESS ESS-SEE-NAH REVELATIONS

This is saying, I will take everything I learned in kindergarten and bring it with me to my college years, but I choose not to embrace what I am being taught. I want to repeat the kindergarten experience in the college environment. And many see this happen; do they not?

The Cycle of Reawakening: Divine Illumination

Beloved Ones, it is a great moment in your world of linear expression now that we bring to thee again the Divine illumination of all wisdom.

The Divine illumination of all wisdom, found within the core center of every being of Divine love that is on this world, and many other worlds, are now being called to a great moment of self-responsible action...Self-responsible action.

To blame is to compare.
To compare is to be afraid.
To be afraid will anchor greater doubt.
And as you anchor greater doubt, you will, indeed, manifest that which you fear the most.

It is a simple, simple, simple formula. It is a simple method and way of being.

In your world now, the energies of Divine manifestation have even themselves been manipulated so that many are manifesting that which, indeed, is the opposite of what they cry out for. And many say; Why does this happen to me? Why am I not able to break free? Why does this happen to me when I do this and this and this and this?

Beloved Ones, self pity will perpetuate self pity.

We invite you to pay attention that when the flood comes forward, it may come forward literally and it may come forward non-literally, and yet, to see a flood says much energy is around me. How do I harness that energy for Divine expansion?

Two great floods have recently already come to your planet that were harnessed without the gift of the positive expression. There will be more very soon. How will you harness them?

Perhaps in your own personal expression as you are on this beautiful world now, the Divine illumination of your wisdom offers you a great life boat at a time of a great flood.

For it is only the wisdom that you harness from within your own place of Divine anchored knowing that will offer you the life boat you may seek.

Beloved Ones, money is an illusion, and we use this word very, very, very, very diligently. Money is an illusion, and as long you feed the illusion, it will perpetuate. Indeed, your world has not quite transited from where the lack of any money can bring you greater comfort, and yet within your heart, that comfort is always there.

SRI & KIRA

DIVINE ILLUMINATIONS: A SERIES OF TIMELESS ESS-SEE-NAH REVELATIONS

Together your world will transcend all illusions in ways that, for many, will feel harsh and scared. In order to avoid feeling harsh and scared is to recognize the beauty of Divine wisdom and the upliftment within thee already.

Beloved One, you may either stay in kindergarten or you may free yourself to a university education. Which choice would you like to make? And recognizing that only you can make the choice for yourself, your actions will, indeed, bring forward all that you will notice around this energy.

Beloved Ones, in your world now, upon you right now, is the blessing of Divine Self-freedom through the recognition of your own Divine expansion.

Es-see-nah energy is greater on your planet now than it has ever been.
All practices are here for you.

Review your practices, and recognize them as a gift or a step to freedom, not a book that will, for sake of better word, keep you in kindergarten.

When you offer to yourself the gift of Divine practice, when you offer to yourself the gift of Divine love, knowing, recognition, and self-responsible action, even the rules of what you call the "game of life" become limited and no longer necessary.

A word about Karma

Let us talk momentarily about karma. For many of you have been concerned or preoccupied with karma or karmic ramification. For many of you, you already understand that at the burst of energy that came forth rapidly to your world at the time of the millennium, that the karmic imperative was released, thereby freeing a greater moment of self-responsible action than had ever been available to you before. And yet many stood up and said, No, I must claim karma. This is through self-responsible action, and many cry out and say; If there is no karma, does that mean I can kill?

Of course not. Of course not.

This is a comparative statement from a brain center's recognition that has not anchored in a heart of freedom and wisdom that understands that once one has become fully self-responsible, all action transcends all rules because only Divine action can come forward.

Embracing the Moment of Freedom

Smile, Beloved Ones, and feel the energy that comes into thee, and when you do not smile, notice the energy that comes into thee.

Take a breath with a smile, and then take a breath without a smile and notice the difference. We do not offer this as a means of comparison.

We offer it as a means of freedom. For when you free the mind from even wanting to pay attention, you find limitless wisdom pouring through you.

SRI & KIRA

DIVINE ILLUMINATIONS: A SERIES OF TIMELESS ESS-SEE-NAH REVELATIONS

Beloved Ones, your world now is uplifting and you have much energy supporting this Divine upliftment. How you move forward is always, and has always, and will always, be your choice.

The activities in your life, the expression of your life, is now on a pathway to greater freedom than has ever been, and in the pathway to great freedom, there is also the experience of great confusion.

You are at a moment of freedom, and in the moment of freedom, all energy converges,
all manifestation comes forward,
and all universal experience conjoins.

Take a breath again and recognize and feel our heart reaching out to you now.
As we gaze into your eyes, may you gaze into ours.

May you feel the limitless energy of Divine Freedom pouring through you, with you, and as you.
May your wisdom uplift all.
We offer this gift to you.
We offer this gift to you.

Divine freedom and recognition is your birthright.
It is, and has always been, your birthright.

SRI & KIRA

DIVINE ILLUMINATIONS: A SERIES OF TIMELESS ESS-SEE-NAH REVELATIONS

And as you allow this divine birthright to come forward, as you allow this Divine light to come forward, feel your heart center open. Invite the brain to relax. Feel the light of the Universe pour through you.

We offer you a ray of great light of healing, if you simply choose to be with it.

In your world now, words will no longer have any meaning, and there will be many false words upon you.

Allow your true freedom to come forward.
Make your decision to be in kindergarten or university.
All decisions are Divinely guided, and all decisions will serve your soul perfectly.
Let go of the comparison.
Let go of the judgment.

The time of great manifest resurrection energy is upon thee, if you choose to bring it into thee.
Many years ahead, much to do, and we have much more to say and will bring it to you with great joy and reverence.

Feel our love around you now as you know the love that has always been with thee and is thee.
And so it is.
