“The Our is Here”

*Delivered at the TOSA Self-Ascension Center
Antigua, Guatemala, Central America*

*Through Wisdom Teacher Sri Ram Kaa & Angelic Oracle Kira Raa
January 2014*

The Society of Crystalline Light speak:

Hello beloved angels. Beloved...we wish to call you freedom fighters; Beloved beings of luminescent crystalline light and energy. Hello, hello, hello, hello.

The Collective Our Nature

There is within our divine nature, your divine nature, the collective Our nature. And we wish to offer to you this energy as a way of understanding the Our.

For indeed, the Our is at hand.

You may say this is a play on words. In many ways it is. It is a play on words and it is play. For when the Our is at hand, the time or the h-o-u-r reveals itself, because all comes back together. The Our, the o-u-r is at hand, and the hour is at hand.

We offer this to you in the recognition that to be in the reunified state of your divine wisdom-filled experience is to re-cognize, to recognize, that you are whole and complete without the need to rationalize.

ARCHANGELIC INSOULMENT

Rationalization

To rationalize is to make small, is it not?
It is “to ration”.

*To ration means to come from a cup that is not full.
To ration means that there is concern that the cup is already emptying thereby there will not be enough.*

If there will not be enough, there is concern, there is fear, there is preoccupation.

Within the concern and the fear of the preoccupation, one says “Aha! I come up with a plan. And the plan says we shall allocate, we shall ration, we shall offer simply enough to sustain, yet not enough to live.”

Simply enough to sustain, yet not enough to live.

We invite thee to partake of the full cup of the well of Our divine nature that is ever full and cannot be empty. For the Our is at hand and the need to rationalize, to limit, to come from the aspect that there is not enough is indeed a perpetuation of separation.

To release the need to rationalize is to invite the glorious connection of the Our at hand.

Relaxing the Rational Mind

Allow yourself now to just relax the mind. Just relax the mind as you join in this Our. As you join in this moment. There is the release of rationalizing. There is the release of rational mentality.

A rational mentality limits the fullness of your divine nature.

The rational mentality says “I am aligned wholeheartedly with density, and thereby everything in density is limited for indeed the experience of density, while full in its expression, it is limited in its expansion.”

We repeat: While full in its expression it is limited in its expansion.

And so the energy of rationalization, the energy of rationing, the need to work from the perspective that all things end, is a densified energy.

ARCHANGELIC INSOULMENT

To claim the energy that all things end is to be in the full expression of the density experience. And this is a beautiful gift. And it is a wondrous journey.

And it is simply a step on a journey.

To allow the experience of rationing to come to completion, to allow it to be the lesson and the divine gift that it is, is to allow the fullness of the Our at hand. The Our at hand is invoking, or an invocation, that expands all energy. That expands all energy.

Let us use the example of food, because in a world of density, food is often rationed.

Food is often feared as running out, not having enough.

A preoccupation is it not?

This preoccupation spans the complete breadth of the density experience from those who must beg to those who have plenty.

All beings have their own perception of is there enough, do we have enough, are we prepared, where is it coming from, how shall it arrive, how is it prepared, is it safe, is it supported, is it healthy, is it bountiful?

Beloved ones, within your divine nature is the ever-bountiful food of the soul, the ever-bountiful energy of the universe, the ever bountiful Our that is without diminishment.

To release the rational mind is to embrace bounty...to embrace bounty.

When one embraces bounty, the energy of miracles manifests. And as they say, the water can turn to wine.

There will always be enough. There is the sustenance, because the sustenance is within all-ways.

It is the Our at hand. It is the Our of your divine beingness.
It is your Our of bountiful manifest miracle presence.

To be rational is to close all opportunity to bounty.

Living in a Rational World

To live in a rational world, is simply the recognition that you have chosen to always be in a rationing energy. I will ration my time. I will ration my love. I will ration my ability to connect. I will ration my attention. I will ration my intelligence. I will ration my body. I will ration everything.

To let go of the rationing energy is to embrace the energy of the bounty of ever present enough-ness.

For some, this is a joyous message of divine freedom, because to be in the energy, the moment, the Our at hand, the o-u-r at hand, is a joy-filled home coming of bountiful reunion that permeates the over-soul and unifies all that you are while still in form to express bountifully.

And for others this may be a message of polarization or frightening. Saying, “I must be rational, for only rational exists. I must ration to be sure I have plenty. I must be sure that all is in order according to my rational brain.”

We celebrate Our experience. We celebrate the rational. And we celebrate the bountiful. We celebrate those who proceed step-by-step in collusion with the density. And we celebrate those that expand moment to moment in harmony with Our moment.

It is in your own divinity to celebrate all, to experience all, for only through the rational do you find the bountiful, and only in the bountiful do you understand and comprehend the rational.

And together the Our is at hand. This is a miracle presence...the Our.

It is a time of reunion, and it is the time of the rectification.

And with rectification there is balance, there is harmony, and there is Our reunion.

*Indeed the Our is at hand.
Indeed the rational may rest.
And indeed the bounty is here.
We love you.
And so it is.*
