“Humanity’s Progress: Linear or Cyclical?”

*Delivered at the TOSA Self-Ascension Sanctuary
Antigua, Guatemala, Central America
Through Wisdom Teacher Sri Ram Kaa & Angelic Oracle Kira Raa
September 2014*

The Crystalline Beings of Light speak

Hello Beloved Angels of Great Light, of Great Love, of Great Wisdom and of Great Progress. Yes, we offer this work to you, Progress.

A history of Humanity

Great progress has been made in the strides of those that are seeking reunification with the Divinity within. To recognize this progress is to recognize a great leap in the conscious evolution of the journey of the soul while in form.

This is a conscious evolution because there is an awareness, a conscious awareness, of the Divinity of the inward journey. This has been beautifully entwined with the densified realms thereby offering to all a unification opportunity.

We wish to offer to you today, you may say a brief history lesson. Within this brief history lesson, that, which is this planetary system, not just this planet, this entire system, is a bubble. It is a precious bubble. And within this precious bubble, there have been many different experiences.

There have been many, many, many millennia where this planet was still and other planets in this little system of density were active. Active with building, active with expansion, active with conscious awareness, and with evolutionary processes.

One by one, the journey through this system has been circular as this is a circular system. Your planets are circular in form, you have rotations, you have means of rotating.

And so everything in this bubble of Divine densified illusionary experience is circular.

ARCHANGELIC INSOULMENT

And as your patterns of density have moved from one to another, there is a flow is there not?

A great flow! We offer this to you to invite you to feel the energetic wave that we are sending to you now, because when you can understand this energetic wave, when you can understand a flow, a circle, a flow, a circle, then you are able to see that progress indeed is great. Progress is great.

Here, in this world of density, on this Gaia, there are beings who are very, very young to Being and there are Beings who are weary of Being.

The Blessing of the Journey

This weariness comes from the eternal journey. And, weariness can only come when one has not truly remembered the blessing of the wisdom...the blessing of the journey. When one is weary of the journey, one has forgotten the bounty of the journey, the blessing of the experience, and the delight in its creation.

If you find yourself weary through your awareness, if you find yourself tired through your awareness, if you find yourself often or frequently dreaming about leaving the form that you carry now because you are weary with the experience of density, then we say,

“Snap out of it. Snap out of it. Snap out of it. Snap out of this illusion of weariness.”

Weariness is an illusion! As is the perception of a desire to leave because one is weary with awareness. Awareness indeed, remembrance indeed, can be tiring. Or, shall we say challenging when one is in a world where awareness is far less greater than non-awareness.

For indeed, to wake up each morning to fully experience each day in full awareness can initially seem challenging. And, when you are able to fully anchor in the awareness with the clarity of the wisdom of the journey, then only joy can be present, only delight can be present. And your Divinity moves you.

It is Beloved Ones, you would use the word normal, so we offer this word to you, 'normal'.

It is normal to have the experiences of the body, the mind, the emotions, and the spirit intertwine while you are navigating this world in form. This is as you would say, normal.

It is also a great illusion to assume that for one to be in a state of ascended awareness, one must be constantly be in meditation or act a certain way, or be a certain way, or do certain things.

Each being knows the journey within. When the progress is made and the conscious awareness unifies with the journey within, the being is able to dance, celebrate, release the weariness, and discover the truth.

The Progression of Cycles

For in the history of this little bubble system, there have been many civilizations on several different planetary stars in this system and as those different civilizations have culminated and cycled, so have you.

You are originated from many other areas, let us say that, from many different existences.

Your DNA, your Divine DNA, your crystalline matrix within, carries cellular memory of these experiences far beyond this one world. And great progress has been made because many are now aware of their former self in the realm of a different area.

When you become aware...without doubt...when you have the tenacity to move forward, this is all progress.
To be aware without doubt, to move forward, to have the tenacity, this is progress.
And you are progressing.

Progression is natural. We do not use the word normal, for the word normal is birthed of this world. Natural feels more congruent if we were to use words of this realm to be able to offer to you the expression of your progress. All progress is natural. And every step, each moment, all breaths are progress. Especially when you believe it is not.

Often in your journey, in your dance, in your expansionary experience, you may say things look backward. And indeed, for the total experience of the planet, there are energies that are cycling back into belief systems and experiences that are from your recent past and your not so recent past.

These are cycles. And sometimes a cycle comes forward to test or to challenge the progress that has been made.

It is your time now to anchor your progress, for progress is transient unless it is claimed.
Progress is an illusion unless it is recognized.
Progress can be fiction or progress can be fact.

What do you claim it to be?

Progress: Linear or Expansive?

To be in active progress is to be in the state of Divine awareness that your journey is indeed on track. That the journey of this planet can only move in the direction it is moving because it is a cyclical planet. Everything moves in cycles here. Everything! And it will continually cycle as it will continually circle.

The question is, is it a linear cycle or is it an evolutionary cycle that carries you, through that part of the flow? That carries you, carries you, carries you, carries you. For you are a part of the cycle.

Are you linear or are you expansive?

Linear or expansive?

What is that is your progress?

For you can make great progress in experiencing this one experience. And, you can make great progress in experiencing multiple dimensions and memories and anchoring wisdom that then frees you to go from linear to expansive...Linear to expansive.

Everything in this world is a cycle. Everything that you are is a cycle. And the cycle that is before you now is inviting you, reminding you, and calling you to your progress; to notice the normality through the lens of density and then to dive into the natural evolution through your memory.

It is important to recognize that the memory we speak of is not the memory of the mind of this planet. For the memory of the mind of this planet is excellent at creating the illusion of the weariness.

The illusion of I want to leave.

The illusion of this is no longer fun.

The illusion of,

I don't want to be here,

I do not want to do.

I do not want to see.

I do not want to do.

The Trap of Distraction

Beloved angels, you have an infinite amount of choices in front of you! And you are not ever trapped. You are not trapped here on this planet. You are not trapped in your body. You are not trapped in your emotions, your feelings, or your world.

The only thing that traps you is the illusion that co-creates with the mind to distract you.

Distraction is the trap.

Distraction is the trap.

What distracts you from your truth? What is your life manifesting? What would you like to do?

Dive deep into the co-creative process of your heart and your soul as you allow yourself to call forth your life from there.

Prosperity and talk of prosperity or talk of the illusion of the means of support is a distraction. And when this becomes a factor in your decisions, then your decisions are being manipulated by your mind, by astral interference.

Because your brilliant crystalline form is an ever abundant co-creative powerhouse.

Are you claiming this co-creative powerhouse energy or are you diving in distraction?

These are the gifts, because to ask the question is progress. To recognize the question is progress. To pay attention is progress. To simply notice while releasing judgment of the self is progress.

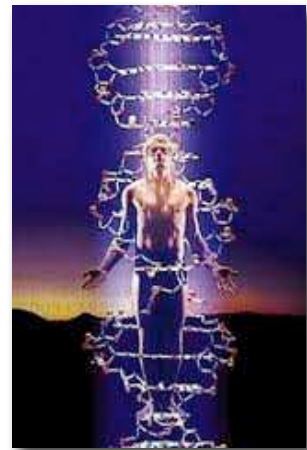

Your universal brethren who exist far outside the bubble of this one little point in the universe are calling to you, are standing waiting for you.

And you know this!

Deep within your cosmic DNA has already lit up like the most brilliant Christmas tree. And so allow these lights. Follow the lights. Connect with them.

Send your light out strongly to your universal brethren, so that you may have the additional, let us say revenue, for indeed it is revenue.

It is a bank of great energy that you can draw upon with a limitless account that has your name on it.

Commanding Reunification

Go to your bank where there is limitless...limitless energy, limitless support, limitless creation and command your light to reunify.

Reunify through your wisdom.

Reunify through the activation of your cosmic heritage, your crystalline DNA and your Divine heart for you have made extraordinary progress. Your world has made great progress and all are progressing now.

It is the moment where the cycle has reset and it is spinning again.

Is it linear or expansive?

This is the choice in front of you.

Either way you are making great progress. And it is a time of great celebration.

Dive deep into your connections. Unify your memories. Unify your heart.
And act from a unified field of Presence as you dance and delight in your creative abilities.
It is a great choice. It is progress. It is now. And so it is beloved ones and so it is.
