The Essene Brethren Speak:

Hello beloved Beings of great light, love and reverent being. Hello beloved ones.

Reverent Reunion Activation

We invite thee to take thy fingers and touch them, up here, by the heart center.

We invite thee to simply connect.

To take in a deep breath of glorious recognition that you have one hand, and you have another hand and that it is only when the two hands come together that you pray in a manner that seeks reverent reunion.

The power of the recognition of reverent reunion rests in the energy of what you would call the numeral 11 (Eleven).

In reverent reunion, there is joy, there is harmony, there is recognition and there is the divine love of the universe that is forever offering you its gifts when you stop seeking and begin receiving.

We offer this to you again....to stop seeking and begin receiving.

Revelation of the Ascended Masters Abodes

Beloved angels, we come to you from the depths of the crystalline oceans of divine eternity today – we, the Essene Brethren. And with us are our beloved masters who reside at the lake you know now as Atitlan in the abode of the masters that is one of Eleven abodes that have lifted from a veil of protective crystalline light at the moment of the Divine Reunion.

It is a beautiful and blessed time on your planet now.

For in this beautiful and blessed time on your planet now, there is a great freedom energy that is as if you take your fingers and hold them to your heart and feel all resistance release as you would pull those fingers away.

Imagine that these fingers, as they touch, have great capacity to withdrawal like a toxin all that would no longer serve you and you breathe it in and then you simply lift it away. And as you lift it away, your fingers become radiant Beings of crystalline light and you feel this energy transmute, transform and lift as if it has been transmuted by the sacred containers that are always available to transmute the energies of chaos when one is open to receiving this gift.

To the heart again.....breathing in again.....and releasing again.

The Ascended Masters and Primary Energies

Eleven abodes of the masters have recently lifted again around your planet.
Many of you may say “there are only so many abodes and they have been discussed before”.
Yes, beloved children!

I AM consciousness has raised itself and during the years of a past millennium when there was a great wave of recognition and great visitation in physical formation where many were able to connect in direct ways that would assist the mind to relax itself, there was also the great vision of the times ahead.

Of course there are many abodes here, for you are in, if you were to call this earth a house, you are in a great house of ascended energy. And in the great house of ascended energy, there are many abodes waiting for those to revisit.

Each Being of Light that resides in this blessed journey of homeland now is available.....yes, available for the resurrection to connect back with the blue energy that birthed the cellular patterns that have become the genetic blueprints of DNA for the human form many, many, many eons ago.

The primaries are awaking and there are few of you on this world.
Yet many of you see us or hear us in this form.

A primary is one who was here at the original seeding of this world where all of the blueprints came forward. A primary often feels not comfortable in this world because a primary always feels not quite in-flow with the, let us say, density norm. A primary often cries alone as they seek reunion and yet deep within their heart, they understand the profound gift of their presence, yet sometimes not sure how to harness it.

Many primaries are now finding each other in this moment of Divine Reunion - the One and the One. Many primaries register or resonate with the word, or the numeral 11 (Eleven). Regardless of the language that you may use to say this word, Eleven, take it in any language and you will discover that great resonance comes around the word or the energy or the recognition or the seeing of this symbol 11 (Eleven).

Eleven and The Enlightened Way

For it, (11), is indeed more a symbol than it is anything else.

And in the symbology and the understanding of the true form of the One and the One - the 11 (Eleven), you bring them together and find the Infinite, the 0 (zero) creation within.

Bend the two lines: take the One (left hand)....take the One (right hand) and bring it again to the infinite creation (bringing fingertips together to form the 0 - the infinite creation molecule).

Beloved ones who are now in this world in a great moment of resurrection energy, what you are discovering – or rediscovering- in this time now is that great masters are here for you.

Many of you have connected with these masters. You receive names that you say “I do not know this name. This seems to be a name that no one has written about”.

Of course because all of the true records were burned during a moment you call the Library of Alexandria. These ancient parchment scrolls that listed all of the sacred names of the masters were transmuted from the 3rd dimension into the higher realms. And so you will not find them on parchment. You will not find them on paper. You will find them in your heart when you fully access the higher realms of wisdom.

There are golden discs of wisdom that are ready to be seen again on your planet now. And the keys to the resurrection of these are being felt by the primaries. These calls are showing up in great, sacred geometric formations. They are showing up in great calls of the heart. They bring chills of recognition and divine knowing to those who are ready to step through the ancient models of growing and in to the Enlightened Way of Being.....the ancient model of growing to the Enlightened Way of Being.

THE MIRACLE OF SERVICE SERIES : 12 STEPS TO ASCENSION

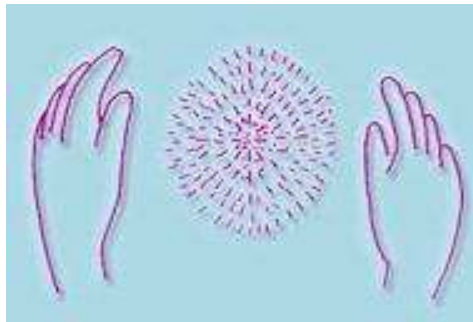

It is your choice.

One and One:

The Ancient way of Growing...and...The Enlightened Way of Being.

To fully step into the power of the Eleven demands both - the recognition, the honoring and the divine joy-filled reunion of the ancient with the recognition of the path of Being that is fully here now and resonant with all Beings of love and light.

If you take your Eleven before you... your two hands and hold them as we demonstrate for thee now, (Hands spaced in front, on either side of the head, fingers facing skyward, palm facing palm) and you bring your gaze between the hands and gaze across at a solid wall that is clear without anything on it, just plain, no design. If you need to you may tape a paper on the wall to do this. You raise the One (left hand), you raise the One (right hand) and you bring your eyes through them and you invite the energy of the Ancient and the Enlightened Way of Being to form a powerful circle of light between these hands.

And then you create around the circle of light the infinite number that many call (zero) 0 - the creation molecule. And you take this creation molecule and you bring it to your third eye and wipe it down along the head and over the shoulders, you will find that you will have greater resistance and greater energy at a time when the compression of many beings of interference energy - and we offer this word simply to help you understand.

Releasing Interference Energy

Many beings of interference energy have attached to many primaries, have attached to many. They have attached through a cellular invitation into the cognitive areas of the brain. Specifically in the area of the brain stem and in the area's that control the egoic presence.

To ignite the One and the One - to gaze through and ignite the infinite molecule, the building block that was brought to your beloved Gaia at the time of the origin of the seeding of this world, that you are re-entering into complete remembrance of now.

(Hands in front, fingers facing skyward, palm facing palm, bending fingers to touch completing the perfect 0 of infinite creation molecule)

Bring it to the third eye and you begin and you wash around the head, around the shoulders and you will find great cleansing. For some, you may find great tears as you do this for you will feel yourself being lifted from a veil. It is as if the angels reach out their hand and say:

“Beloved One, we see you in the shallow grave of illusion with the dirt that is on you now. Reach out your hand and we are here and we grab your hand so that you may lift”.

Yet, only you may lift the hand up to be lifted.

This is the importance of this mirror energy – to lift up your hand, means a hand will reach and lift you.

To close your hands tight in argument and judgment means you will be met by argument and judgment.

To hide your eyes from what you feel you cannot bear to see will bring a greater blindfold around you so that you will begin to see nothing.

THE MIRACLE OF SERVICE SERIES : 12 STEPS TO ASCENSION

Beloved angels of great light Arise, Arise, Arise, Arise!
It is your moment of glory and reunification.

All of the abodes in their great light and love have lifted now for you to see. We come to thee today with the gift of the Brethren at the crystalline abode that has been at the lake known as Atitlan from the beginning of all time. And we seek to bring to thee as we come to thee in this form, each of the abodes, each time we speak with thee.

For the revelation of the Eleven abodes that have come forward now is an important recognition that will assist with the anchoring of the crystalline framework and the grids around your world that are indeed teetering. And so it is the teeter, the gift of this teeter that has called the awakening.

For in your world, linear time is very fluid.

It is fluid and it is continual as it is kept alive by the inhabitants of the linear journey. And so it is only through the energetic movements that the moments of divine readiness are experienced.

They are not ever experienced through words.

And they are not experienced through what one might call a prophetic prediction.

They are experienced through the energies that come forward on the planet that transcend ALL energies of the mind - that transcend ALL energies of illusion.

They come forward when a sincere hand lifts because our hand is ALWAYS there.

One and One, together you are ready.

It is a great moment and we love thee. And, So It Is.....
